BAPTISTS NAME MISSION POLICY

Board Against "Entangling Alliance" With Other Christian Bodies.

SPLENDID INCREASE SHOWN

Home Missions Leading Topic of Discussion—Appeal to Southern Baptists to Aid Negroes Causes a Stir.

Baltimore, May 13.—Home missions formed one of the principal topics of consideration at today's session of the Southern Baptist Convention. Rev. Dr. Burrows reported that there was a general increase during the past year of $114,000 for the home and foreign mission boards.

The Board of Home Missions strongly endorsed the policy of the Southern Baptist Convention of having "no entangling alliance" with other Christian bodies that "can in any way endanger the purity of Baptist doctrines on practices as Baptists."

This utterance referred specifically to the labors of the board in Panama and Cuba, where it was stated that the work was progressing rapidly, but that difficulties in the way of the work of both the Sunday schools and other phases have developed in the trend towards "so-called church union efforts and the obliteration or disregard of denominational lines."

"We report", the board adds, "that the lives of professing Christians who go to the Canal Zone for money-making, are a hindrance instead of a help to the Baptist church. Then, too, the efforts of some Christian workers to discredit denominational work in the interests of an undefended Christian union are adding to the difficulties of our missions."

The report, though not stating specifically, was aimed at the Young Men's Christian Association, according to a statement made by Rev. Dr. E. C. Dargan, of Macon, Ga., member of the Cuba and Panama Committee. After the session he said: "In Cuba and Panama the Y. M. C. A. stands for the undenominational presentation of Christ; the Baptist church has always and will always stand for the Baptist presentation. I do not mean to speak disparagingly of the Y. M. C. A. I only mean that the Baptist church ought not to merge with anybody in work among the missions."

An appeal from the Baptists of the North asking that their brethren of the South aid them in taking care of the negroes, created a stir in the convention. The matter was referred to a committee and will come up for later discussion.

The communication came from the American Baptist Home Mission Society with headquarters in New York. It declared that two-thirds of the negro Baptist ministers have had no more than the merest rudiments of a common school education "and are deplorably deficient in qualifications for spiritual edification and leadership."

The Northern society desires the co-operation of the Southern Baptist in the management and maintenance of its schools in the South and proposes the establishment of a number of Summer schools there for the benefit of the negro Baptist ministry.

Shakespeare's Plea.

This afternoon J. H. Shapespeare, of London, England, British secretary of the World's Baptist Alliance, and who traces his ancestry to the Bard of Avon, made a plea for aid for the poor Baptist preachers of Europe. Mr. Shakespeare is in this country for the purpose of visiting this convention and that of the Northern Baptists held recently in Chicago. It is his mission to secure $10,000 with which to enable the less affluent Baptist divines of the European countries to attend the meeting of the World's Baptist Alliance to be held in Philadelphia next year. Of the amount desired $6,000 was raised at the Chicago convention and today the remaining $4,000 was contributed within ten minutes. In the course of his remarks Mr. Shakespeare declared that by an actual formation of an alliance the Baptists could overthrow many of the faiths in Europe and change the religious map. He said that the Baptist faith would soon be the dominant one of Russia and declared that thousands of the peasants are accepting that belief.

Jacksonville Next Year.

It was decided to hold the Southern Baptist Convention of next year in Jacksonville, Fla.

In an address tonight on the work of the Home Mission Board, Rev. Dr. B. D. Gray, of Atlanta, secretary of the board, outlined the relations of the Baptists to the missionary problems of the South—the negroes, the Indians, emigrants and the inhabitants of the mountain districts. He predicted that 25 years hence more emigrants will be landed annually at both Charleston and New Orleans than are now put ashore at this port.

Rev. George W. McDaniel, of Richmond, Va., made a plea for justice for negroes in courts of law and Rev. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, Ky., spoke on evangelism, deriding many modern methods, pleading for a simple presentation of the gospel and declaring:

"If the pure food law should be applied to the evangelism of the present day a good deal of it would be put out of business."

SUPPRESSED IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 13.—Mayor Gaynor, of New York, having notified the police to stop the performance of Valeska Suratt in "The Girl With the Whooping Cough," the managers of the show are smiling over the thoughts of the harvest they can reap with the show on tour. But Mayor Gaynor promises to go even further. He says that the show is not fit for the American stage and that he feels it will be his duty to notify his fellow executives throughout the country that this show should not be permitted on any stage. In the meantime Miss Suratt, who has won fame for her striking costumes if nothing else, has also been barred from giving a vaudeville act at Hammerstein's.

DR. HYDE'S FATE WITH JURY

Kansas City Physician Charged With the Murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope—Arguments Yesterday—Scenes.

Kansas City, Mo., May 13.—After the Hyde murder jury had ballotted for one hour and 40 minutes tonight without reaching a verdict the jurymen were sent to their hotel for the night. They will resume ballotting at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

While Mrs. B. Clark Cyde wept convulsively, Prosecutor Virgil S. Conkling today asked a jury to sentence her husband to death for the alleged murder by poison of Col. Thos. H. Swope, an uncle of Mrs. Hyde. The impassioned appeal of the prosecutor did not move Dr. Hyde.

When Mr. Conkling had ended his plea to the jury to send the defendant to death, the physician turned about in his chair and smiling at his wife said: "Why, that man wants to hang me."

Still sobbing, Mrs. Hyde put her arm on her husband's shoulder, but said nothing.

Attorney James A. Reed finished the final argument for the State at 10 o'clock tonight and the case went to the jury.

Outside the court building a mob fought to gain entrance to the night session of court. So unruly did the crowd become that several deputy marshals were delegated to preserve order.

Prosecutor Conkling told the jury plainly that he believed Dr. Hyde guilty. Attorney John H. Lucas appealed to the jury on the ground that the life of Dr. Hyde showed him to be an honest country boy who had never done any harm.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

None Killed, a Building Saving the Sleeping Men from Death.

Logansport, Ind., May 13.—The count today of the laborers employed by the Casparis Stone Company at the quarry colony called Trimmer, which was torn by an explosion of 300 pounds of dynamite last night, revealed that two, Emil Ferer and Liguel Matazzo, were seriously injured, and eight others were painfully cut by flying glass.

Most of the houses were shattered by the blast and had it not been for one heavy building, which acted as a buffer between the "thawing house" where the dynamite that exploded was kept, and the main magazine, where five tons of the explosive was stored, all of the several hundred men asleep in the community would have been blown to bits. The cause of the explosion has not been discovered

STORM IN GEORGIA.

Wind and Hail Yesterday in Augusta District.

Augusta, Ga., May 13.—A wind with a maximum velocity of 40 miles an hour played havoc with trees and crops in this section of the State last night. Fences were blown down, gardens badly damaged, telephone and telegraph service crippled and the electric lighting service interfered with by falling limbs and lightning. There were no fatalities.

Down the Augusta Southern the towns of Spread and Wrens and Hepzibah report heavy damage from wind and hail. The latter broke every window on the windward side of the incoming Augusta Southern train. At Spread large apples were torn from the trees, looking as if struck with hammers. At Wrens a hole was torn in a man's derby and he received a heavy blow on the skull. Cotton and corn are beaten into the earth and will have to be replanted.

EX-GOV. ROLLINS FOR SMUGGLING

TOLD DIFFERENT STORIES

Arraigned With His Son Before Federal Commissioner in New York. Mrs. Rollins Prostrated. New Hampshire Man.

New York, May 13.—Frank W. Rollins, former governor of New Hampshire, and now a banker with Boston offices, his wife, Catherine, and his son, Douglas, were charged today in the sworn complaint of a customs inspector "with conspiring to smuggle into the United States wearing apparel and jewelry and souvenirs without paying or accounting for the duties legally due thereon."

Mr. Rollins and his son were arraigned this afternoon before a Federal commissioner and released in $2,000 bail. Neither of them would talk for publication. Mrs. Rollins was so prostrated by her unhappy fate that she took to her bed immediately on landing. She will answer to the charge against her as soon as she has recovered. The Rollins were first-class passengers on the Lusitania, which arrived here today from Liverpool.

They brought nine trunks on which Mr. Rollins declared only a woman's fur jacket was dutiable, valued at $800. The examination of their baggage had been only partly completed when Inspector Cassidy stepped to the desk of Deputy Collector Rasciwiecz and whispered in his ear. The deputy collector thereupon summoned Mr. Rollins and informed him as follows:

"It is my duty at this point to advise you that any goods which are dutiable and which you fail to declare, may be seized and that arrest can follow any action reasonably to be construed as attempted smuggling. Any statement you may care to make now, supplemental to your declaration, I am willing to accept. It might be well for you to talk with your family and find out if there is anything they have failed to declare. I am telling you this because I do not want to do you an injustice."

Mr. Rollins bowed courteously and consulted with his wife and son. When he returned he said, according to the customs officers, that his wife had omitted inadvertently to declare a cheap necklace, a bracelet, three gowns, two suits and minor sundries. With those additions the declaration, he said, was complete. Nevertheless the deputy collector ordered an assistant to continue inspection of the trunks and what was discovered was considered cause to order the baggage to the appraiser's store rooms and to request that Mr. Rollins, his wife and their son submit to personal search in their state rooms.

Customs officers afterwards swore that on the person of the former Governor were found several articles of jewelry, on Mrs. Rollins a pearl mounted watch and stud; and on Douglas Rollins more jewelry. It is charged that none of this jewelry had been declared, but the estimated value was not given.

Mr. Rollins and his son were then arrested and taken before Commissioner Shields. Bail was furnished by a surety company and a further hearing was set for one week from today.

Frank West Rollins was Governor of New Hampshire from 1899 to 1901, and is the author of "The Ring in the Cliff", "What Can a Young Man Do?" and other books. His home is at Concord, N. H.

After Foxhall Keene.

New York, May 13.—Foxhall Keene, the millionaire polo player and sportsman, who was also a passenger today on the Lusitania, was notified by customs inspectors that he had failed to declare wearing apparel brought from England said to be worth $300. Mr. Keene said the omission was an oversight and that he would pay the 60 per cent. duty. His explanation was accepted.

THE STORM IN NASH.

Very Little Damage to Crops—Young Man in Trouble—Death.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 13.—Yesterday's hail and rain storm seems to have been pretty general over Nash and Edgecombe counties but farmers in the city today report damage to crops small.

Addie Moore, a young white man who came to this city to work in the A. C. L. shops from Lucama and some time ago sprang into the limelight because he stole a mule from his stepfather, selling the animal in this city, is again in trouble. While here selling the mule he is charged with stealing a bicycle from in front of a church where Sunday School was underway, carrying it to Lucama where he sold it to a citizen for $20. The young man and the police traced the wheel to Lucama but the Wilson county men refused to give it up, has given bond for its possession and will fight the case out in the higher court.

Mrs. Tempie A. Harriss died at the home of her son in this city yesterday afternoon, aged 76 years. She belonged to a prominent family in the two counties. The remains were carried to Elm City this afternoon.

INDIAN UPRISING IN NEW MEXICO

PUEBLOS ON THE WAR PATH

All Communication With Taos Has Been Destroyed—Census Enumerators Caused Unrest Among Indians.

East Las Vegas, N. M., May 13.—An uprising of serious proportions has broken out among Pueblo Indians at Taos, 70 miles northwest, and tonight troops are hurrying by special train from Santa Fe to check a possible massacre of white ranchers. The Indians have cut all telephone and telegraph wires from Taos but reports indicate that the depredations have been confined to an attack on the wife and children of L. L. Myers, a homesteader, the cutting of fences and the theft of horses and cattle.

Further attacks are feared by ranchers and Judge John R. McFie, conducting court at the Taos, today issued an urgent demand for troops to Governor Mills. He declared a massacre was imminent. The governor immediately ordered 50 men of the National Guard to Taos. The guardsmen will reach Taos tomorrow morning. Gen. Brooke, in command of the National Guard has also ordered another company at Santa Fe to be in readiness to march at a moment's notice.

The uprising of the Pueblos, who for years have been peaceful, is believed to have been caused by the punishment of Pueblos by territorial officers. For years the Pueblos have governed themselves, electing their own chiefs and village counsellors tried and punished malefactors of the tribe with appeal to the territorial officers.

Several months ago an Indian who had been imprisoned by an officer appealed to the territorial courts and the Indian chief and the counsellors of the village were put in jail. Since that time the Indians have been unruly and it is believed that the present outbreak is the result of fear by the Pueblos that they may lose their independence.

For several weeks ranchers near Taos have found their fences cut and their stock missing. The discontent of the Indians culminated yesterday in the attack on the Meyers' household.

The taking of the census is also believed to have caused much unrest among the Indians. When the enumerators reached Santo Domingo and San Dia the Indians refused all information concerning members of the tribe and threatened the enumerators with violence.

It was only after the census takers had threatened to bring troops and former Gov. Curry had gone personally to the chiefs and reassured them about the purpose of the census that the Indians were persuaded to answer questions.

Several eastern artists are believed to be in or near Taos, which was once the headquarters of Kit Carson, making sketches of Indian life. Taos is the oldest and most picturesque town of the Pueblos.

WOMEN'S CLUBS MEET.

American Federation in Session at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Cincinnati, May 13.—Today, the second day of the biennial convention of the American Federation of Women's Clubs, promised to be the busiest of the entire session. This morning Henry Turned Bailey, of Boston, gave an illustrated lecture on practical art work for women's clubs.

One of the largest of the minor conferences that are to be held during the convention, took place at the hotel Sinton this afternoon when the State officers and secretaries met.

Senator Samuel H. Piles, of Washington State

Washington, May 13.—Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, may have company in a Senate investigation on how he secured his seat. During the hearing of the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry the attorney for Glavis demanded that information be admitted telling how Senator Samuel H. Piles, of Washington, was elected. The statement was made by Attorney Brandeis that Senator Piles had the backing of the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate. Senator Root, a member of the Ballinger committee, demanded that the statement be removed from the records. This was not done, but the committee refused to make further inquiry along this line. However, the Pinchot-Glavis following are at active work and announce that they will present a number of points on the election of Senator Piles for the consideration of the country. Senator Piles is well known as a member of the National Waterways Commission and recently visited North Carolina on the tour of inspection of the waters of that State and the inland waterway at Beaufort.

SENATE VOTES ON MEASURE

Passed Compromise Amendment on Long and Short Haul Feature of Railroad Bill—A Wrangle Among Senators.

Washington, May 13.—By a sudden welding late today of supposedly irreconcilable factions the Senate by a vote of 56 to 10 adopted a compromise amendment to the railroad bill for the regulation of relative charges for long and short hauls. The agreement was reached chiefly for the reason that each faction apparently thought it was getting the better of a shrewdly driven bargain.

Before adjournment Senator Bacon sought to show that Senator Aldrich, the leader of the forces in charge of the bill, had voted for a provision different from that which he had advocated during the long debate on this question.

He was affecting to quote from one of the Rhode Island Senator's speeches when Senator Bailey interrupted, remarking that Mr. Bacon was mistaken and was quoting from his (Bailey's) remarks.

"I hope the Senator from Texas will not interfere", said Mr. Aldrich laughingly. "The Senator is trying to justify his action in voting with me."

"That is the time I usually have to justify my vote," retorted Mr. Bacon.

While upbraiding regular Republicans for what he asserted was a change of front, Mr. Bacon was interrupted by Senator Elkins, whose ruddy face was wreathed in smiles as he asked: "Well, you're happy, aren't you?"

This raillery plainly irritated the Georgia Senator, for he retorted rather sharply that it took "a very little thing to make some people happy."

"Maybe the Senator will find that it is a big thing," said Senator Elkins, beaming across the chamber.

Significant glances passed between Senators, and people on the floor and in the galleries began to suspect the compromise amendment that had just been adopted meant something different than appeared upon its face.

Feature Voted Upon.

As adopted the new provision strikes out of Section 4 of the Interstate Commerce law the words "under substantially similar circumstances and conditions" and also eliminates the proviso of the section and amends the section so as to make it read as follows:

Section 4. That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of like kind of property, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line or route in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the local rates; but this

ROOSEVELT WITH AMERICANS

Received 350 of His Fellow Citizens at Embassy—Denies Reports Connecting Him With Taft Administration.

Berlin, May 13.—Theodore Roosevelt wound up a day devoted almost exclusively to social activities when tonight in the American embassy he received 350 fellow American citizens. Earlier in the evening Col. Roosevelt and his family dined at the French embassy, the guests of Jules Cambon. This dinner was private and besides the Roosevelts was attended only by Ambassador and Mrs. Hill, and the staffs of the French and American embassies.

A visit to the poor farm maintained by the city of Berlin, luncheon at the American embassy and later a reception there given jointly by Lieut. Commander Belknap and Captain Schartle, respectively, the naval and military attaches, to which a number of distinguished German army and navy officers were invited to meet Col. Roosevelt, were the diversions of the day. At this reception one of the officers, acting on behalf of Emperor William, presented Col. Roosevelt with several photographs showing the American ex-President and Emperor Wiliam together at the Doeberitz maneuvers. The photographs bore the autograph of the Emperor.

Two honors were conferred upon Col. Roosevelt today by his election to membership in the German group of the Inter-parliamentary Peace Union and the German Shakespeare Society.

Mr. Roosevelt today authorized an unqualified denial of the recently published report that he had written letters expressing his attitude towards the administration of President Taft and favoring a certain candidate for Governor of New York State.

Col. Roosevelt, in company with Burgomaster Kirchner, motored this morning to Buch, a suburb, where a colony of 1,500 worn-out workers, men and women, are maintained in relative comfort at the expense of the city of Berlin. The subject of public dependents is being pursued by the former President, who, while in Denmark, investigated a similar institution.

The public charges at Buch are made up of the aged, the infirm and those temporarily incapacitated for work. They are not only supported reasonably but in cases of sickness receive thorough medical treatment.

CONFERENCE MAY CHANGE THE NAME

Southern Methodists Considering Simpler Form of Church Designation.

USE OF TOBACCO CONDEMNED

Young Ministers Will be Advised Aganst it—Superannuating Bishop Morrison—Uniform Divorce Laws.

Asheville, N. C., May 13.—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session today transacted considerable business. The action of the Committee on Revisals, in suggesting that the name of the church be changed to the Methodist church, will come up for debate in a few days, and it is thought the report of the minority leaving the name unchanged will be favorably voted on by the Conference.

This is a constitutional question and if the Conference decided to change the name the question must be submitted to the 46 annual conferences, three-fourths of whose members must pass on it before it can become a law.

The champions of the measure to refuse admission to membership to any annual conference any minister who will not promise to forego tobacco, while defeated today, are glad that at least the young ministers will be advised against its use before entering the conference on trial. It is possible that the question will be reopened.

Many present at today's session expected to hear further reports from the Committee on Episcopacy, especially that part of the report which will recommend the superannuating of Bishop H. C. Morrison. It is stated that the Bishop does not desire this relationship and will plead his cause from the floor.

Report No. 1 was submitted by the Committee on Episcopacy, containing memorial tributes to the following deceased bishops: J. C. Granberry, W. W. Duncan, C. B. Galloway, A. Coke Smith, J. J. Tigert and Seth Ward. By a vote of the Conference the report was put upon its immediate passage.

Report No. 2. of the Committee on Episcopacy recommending that seven bishops be elected was carried by a large majority.

The Committee on Revisal recommended that the name of the church be changed to the Methodist Church, and the report was passed to the calendar. A minority report was submitted requesting that the name be not changed.

A resolution was referred to the Committee on Temperance and other moral and social questions asking that the bishops be requested to appoint a commission of five to act in conjunction with the National Commission on uniform divorce laws to check the growing divorce evil. The reports of the Committee on Temperance and other social and moral questions on the subject of the use of tobacco brought considerable discussion.

The minority report, which compels young men entering the ministry to abstain from tobacco, was lost by three votes. The majority report which recommended that young men entering the ministry be advised not to use tobacco, but which recommended no legislation against it, prevailed by a small majority.

GEO. WASHINGTON'S SWORD.

Made a Matter of Court Procedure—Morgan's Property.

Baltimore, May 13.—The sword which George Washington wore in the war of the Revolution and at the time he resigned his commission at Annapolis, was made a matter of court procedure today when William Colton, attorney for T. S. Lewis, of this city and Mrs. Grace Lee Martin and Captain A. E. Martin, U. S. A., entered suit to prevent the Mercantile Trust & Depotis Company from disposing of the proceeds of the sale of the sword to J. Pierpont Morgan some time since.

The sword was sold to Mr. Morgan by Virginia Tayloe Lewis and others, and the purchase money was placed in the hands of the Mercantile Trust & Deposit Company for investment. The sword for which Mr. Morgan is said to have paid $5,000, was by him turned over to the Mount Vernon collection at Washington's former home. In the papers relating to the suit the present ownership of the sword is not contested but other heirs, represented by Mr. Colton, ask a share in the proceeds of the sale.

Greenvlle, S. C., May 13.—The State convention of Travelers' Protective Assocation closed tonight with a banquet at the Ottaray Hotel, at which Gov. M. F. Ansel was one of the chief speakers.

At the business session today, Greenwood was chosen as the next place of meeting. E. M. Wells, of Darlington, succeeds D. C. Durham, of Greenville, as president.

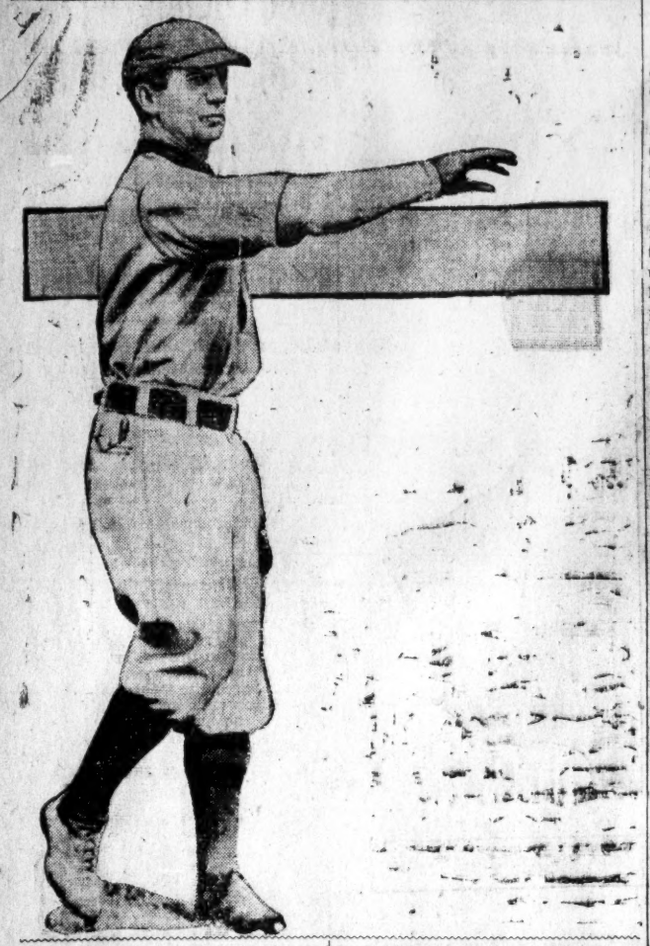

The convention decided in favor of the proposed amendment to increase the amount of death indemnity from $5,000 to $10,000.

Coast Line Team to Again Contest With the Leaguers—Fine Game Expected—Christian College Canceled Games.

The baseball fans were very much disappointed yesterday morning when Owner J. Ed. Smith, of the Wilmington club, announced that he had received a telegram from the Atlantic Christian College team, of Wilson, notifying him of their inability to play the games scheduled for League Park yesterday afternoon and today. The message received by Mr. Smith was to the effect that owing to the failure of the management of the Wilson league team to furnish the necessary pitchers the college bunch had decided not to come.

This information was a great disappointment to the management of the league, for upon the result of these games some decision was to be made about players for permanent positions. However, the fans will be entertained this afternoon by a game between the Coast Line team and the Leaguers. The Coast Line team defeated the Sailors last Saturday and there will be great interest in the game this afternoon. The Sailors are anxious for another try at the Coast Liners and they will do some hard work this afternoon. The line-up of the Coast Line team will be as follows: Battery, Green and King; infielders, Terry, Caulder, Emerson and Hines; outfielders, White, Johnson and McClellan. The Leaguers will have a strong team, but Manager Kite has not yet decided upon his line-up.

This game will be well worth witnessing as those who saw the game last Saturday will testify. The Coast Line team is strong and will do its best to beat the Leaguers again. While on the other hand the Sailors will do their best to even up with the Railroaders. The grounds are in fine condition and the men can make a good showing on them. The game will be called promptly at 4 o'clock and the admission will be 25 cents to all parts of the grounds. Umpire J. R. Davis will handle the indicator.

In the practice game yesterday the Sailors defeated the Whalers. Mr. Kite is finding it difficult to decide who is best and during the next few days will have some hard work for the crew. J. L. Gehring, from Lynchburg, joined the Sailor crew yesterday. He will be seen in the game today. Owner Smith has gotten together a fine lot of players and many favorable comments are heard.

JACK JOHNSON TRAINING.

Champion Shows Tex Rickard a Few Things—In Camp.

San Francisco, May 13.—Just to prove to Tex Rickard and others who are concerned for his safety that an automobile is not the only means of travel, Jack Johnson is doing some of his speeding along the Park Boulevard behind Little Dick, a pacer lent to him by one of his friends.

Jack has declared his intention of going out behind the pacer three times a week at least.

This morning Johnson took Barney Furey with him over a new walking course, in which there are far more hills than the previous one.

"For one thing I wanted a change," said Johnson, "and for another, I wanted to test my wind thoroughly. The hills gave me that chance and now I am sure of my condition. My wind was the one thing I had an idea might need nursing, but I came back to the quarters after a 12 mile trip without blowing in the least."

JEFF ON LONG TRAMP.

Goes 10 Miles to Canta Cruz—Third Man in Ring.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 13.—J. J. Jeffries confined his work today to a ten-mile tramp to Santa Cruz where he took a hot water bath this afternoon. He whiled away the morning hours lazily pulling a boat upand down the San Lorenzo river.

It is believed here that Eddie Graney stands a good chance of being the third man in the ring. Manager Sam Berger left for San Francisco tonight to take up the selection of a referee. Eddie Smith is the only one of the three men under consideration, who is openly satisfactory to Berger.

CITY LEAGUE SEASON.

First Game Will be Played at 17th and Chesnut Today.

The City league baseball season will open this afternoon with two games on the diamond at 17th and Chesnut streets. The Junior League was recently organized among the boys of the city 19 years old and younger. The first game will be between The David G. Worth Bible Class team and the Pirates at 2:30 P. M., and the second will be between the Junior Baraca team and The Boys' Brigade team.

BASEBALL NEXT WEEK.

Fayetteville Highlanders Will Play Three Strong Teams.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 13.—The dopist of the Observer this afternoon hands out the following for the delectation of the fans:

There will be three fine games of baseball on the local diamond next week which should attract great interest.

Monday afternoon at 4:30, the Highlanders and the Atlantic Christian College will play an exhibition game. There will be several of Wilson's league players on the latter team. On Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 4:30 o'clock the Highlanders will play the Mechanics, of Columbia, S. C., a very strong aggregation of players. No other games have been arranged before the opening of the season on Monday the 23rd inst.

The gate receipts from yesterday's game with Donaldson were $40, which was not bad, considering the threatening weather and the fact that no charge was made for the grand stand. The Donaldson boys very gracefully donated their share of the gate receipts to the treasury of Capt. Napier's team.

Forest Thompson, a young pitcher from Washington, D. C., arrived on the Palmetto Limited this morning, and was on the diamond at work within a few hours after his arrival. He showed fine form and the critics who watched him were more than pleased.

RALEIGH MASS MEETING.

Assembles in Wake at Noon Today—Factions Confident.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 13.—The greatest interest is being manifested in the outcome of the mass meeting of "anti-ring" Democrats called to assemble from all the townships of Wake county in Metropolitan hall here tomorrow afternoon by J. W. Bailey, Josephus Daniels and seventy-odd other Democrats to fully launch a fight in the June primaries against the county party organization headed by Col. Armistead Jones, chairman, this being a "sequel" meeting to the one of April 30th that stirred such a sensation when it was found that leaders of neither faction were able to get a hearing until the factions divided, Mr. Bailey and his followers repairing to the sidewalk in front of the court house for their meeting.

This time instead of the call being for Democrats generally the invitations to attend are limited to "Democrats who want to end ring control of the party." "No ringster sympathizers invited" is one of the features of the red-letter, poster-type calls for the meeting printed from day to day in the Raleigh morning paper. Mr. Bailey and his associates in the "reform movement" say that there is every assurance of a representative meeting from all parts of the county and that they have the support of the rank and file of the party. On the other hand the organization leaders and the county officers who have been brought into close alliance with the organization through the effects of the attacks and counter attacks that have been waged the past few weeks, declare that they have reason to know that their supporters are easily in the majority in nearly every section of the county. They concede only two or three townships or precincts to be at all doubtful so far as giving them ample support in the approaching primaries. Thus are the two factions lined up, each manifesting confidence of the overthrow of the other. Owing to the limiting qualifications of the call for the meeting tomorrow there is hardly likely to be anything like a sensatonal feature about the meeting except it be in the tone of some resolution or other denunciatory of the machine are ring leaders who will not be present to make any fight or resent criticism.

SALISBURY IN LINE.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 13.—The Department of Education received notice today that Salisbury has at last voted a local tax for the support of the city public schools. The first election after the State prohibition law went into effect resulted in a defeat of the proposed tax which was made necessary by the loss of the revenue from the saloon and liquor dealers license taxes. The schools have ever since been seriously handicapped. Now the constitutional limit of tax for the schools has been voted and the schools will resume their former-time excellent scope of work.

Thad G. Stern, Oxford, is commissioned by Adjutant General Armfield captain of Company E., Third Infantry, Oxford, to succeed Capt. Wood, resigned; also E. E. Fuller is commissioned first lieutenant of the same company.

Miss Travis, who is stenographer to Governor Kitchin, says that the special telegram sent out from Scotland Neck that her brother, State Senator Travis' life was despaired of, was untrue, and that he is really doing as well as could be expected in a Richmond hospital where he is being treated, his recovery being confidently expected. Senator Travis was shot by E. E. Powell at the same time that Chief of Police Dunn and Representative Paul Kitchin was wounded by Powell, who is now in the State's prison here for safe keeping.

OXFORD PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Plans for New Building—Institute—Sheriff's Good Work.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oxford, N. C., May 13.—Seven architects with their plans are before the building committee of the Oxford Graded School trustees today bidding for new building to be erected this Summer. These are Linthecum, of Durham; Rogers, of the Hook & Rogers, Co., Charlotte; Barrett, Simpson, Thomson & Hartage, of Raleigh, and Minor, of Oxford. Every effort will be made to secure the best possible plan. Mr. J. P. Stedman and W. B. Ballou, members of the school board, have been appointed to compare the various plans and select the two best to be presented at a meeting of the entire board, which will then make a selection from these.

August 15th has been decided on for the beginning of the institute for the Granville county teachers. Prof. Curtis, of the Burlington graded school, and Mrs. Kate Fleming, of the Oxford graded school, will be the conductors for the white teachers.

Sheriff Wheeler reports that only 45 white men in the county will lose their votes in the November elections on account of failure to pay poll tax. This is an excellent report and speaks well for the people of the county as well as for the sheriff. Besides having made the best record ever made in the county as a tax collector, Sheriff Wheeler has captured 16 blockade stills and destroyed 20 other plants.

AFFAIRS AT NEWBERN.

Paving Goes on—Free Night School. Damage Suit—Schools.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., May 13.—Work was actively begun yesterday on the laying of the brick pavement on Griffith street and in the course of a few weeks the entire street down to the present brick pavement on Middle street will be completed. The brick are brought here in barges which come for a load of lumber. A few days ago one barge brought in 175,000 brick, weighing 10 pounds each, equivalent to 35 car loads of 50,000 pounds each.

Rev. A. C. Schuler, of the Tabernacle Baptist church, has opened a night school in the church which will be free to all. The school will be open Tuesday and Friday nights at present and a number of very practical subjects will be taught to those who cannot attend a day school. At the opening night there were 17 persons enrolled and it is expected that the number will increase.

Several days of Craven Superior Court, Judge C. C. Lyon presiding, have been taken up this week with the trial of a damage case against the Kinston Cotton Mills. The case is that of W. B. Flanner, administrator of R. E. Hawkins and the amount sued for was $20,000. After a day of argument the jury quickly cut the amount from the $20,000 asked to the small sum of $500 and brought in a verdict for that amount

The city schools will close June 1st. The commencement exercises will be held on the night of June 1st. On Tuesday night, May 31st, a recital by music pupils of the school will be given and on Tuesday afternoon, May 31st, class of 1910 will have Class Day exercises. The year at school has been very successful and the attendance much larger than heretofore.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.

It Is an Internal Disease and Requires an Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with oils and liniments will not cure, affords only temporary relief at best, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure rheumatism than paint will change the fibre of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rheumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide "gets at the joints from the inside," sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the system, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you feel well all over. Rheumacide "strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause." This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c and 50c a package. Get a bottle today. Booklet free if you write to Bobbitt Chemical Co, Baltimore, Md.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Many Women who are Splendid Cooks

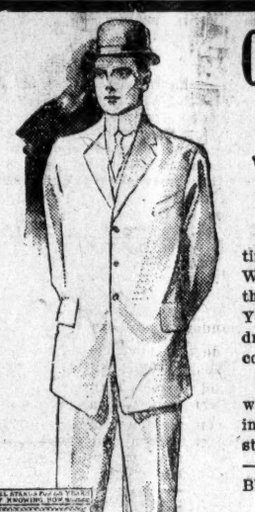

dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME

It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till its fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

THE POLITICAL MELTING POT.

Considerable attention is being given to the manifest disposition in the United States to break party lines. It may mean a recasting of the parties, as the voters show a disposition to make new allignments. This is specially so with Republicans, and to a less extent with Democrats.

However, there is very little reason why the Democratic party should lose any of its forces, but every reason why it should gain from the secession from the Republican party. The Democratic party has not been in power Nationally, and has no responsibility to be cast upon it from that score. The Republican party has been in power for nearly 50 years and it must take the responsibility. The signs of the times are that it has been weiged in the balance and found wanting, to the satisfaction of thousands of voters who realize that the people can get no relief from a party than continues to stand by special interests as against the interests of the people.

The Atlanta Constitution notes the fact that in Iowa, once the most rock ribbed of Republican States, Insurgent Senators Dolliver and Cummins the other day aligned themselves "squarely and derisively" against the policies of the Republican administration at Washington and against the policies of the Republican party as construed by the majority of its representatives in Congress. We do not see why they should remain with a party whose principles are so vastly different from their individual views, and it means with men of conviction that they will sooner or later withdraw from a party with which they cannot agree and for the policies of which they cannot work. In speaking of the change in the attitude of the Iowa Senators, the Constitution gives this reason:

"So common are such incidents, in both parties, that no longer does the nation greet them with shocked amazement.

"The reason is plain—and epochal. It is, that—there is impending in America a new declaration of independence, and a rearrangement of party labels. Its leaven is working through the rank and file of each party, through the length and breadth of every State and Territory. It is a declaration of independence which blasts old political structures with the lightning of tolerance and independence in politics from flag pole to foundation stone. It decrees that, henceforth, party label must adapt itself to conviction, not conviction to party label, as has been the ante-bellum practice in party government in this country.

"It sounds the death knell of the ancient rallying cry of "party loyalty", unless loyalty to party is compatible with honest judgment and conviction upon public issues."

We take the whole situation as auguring well for the Democratic party. While the Republican party is losing friends for good cause and sound reasons, the Democratic party should win them because it is the only opposing force to Republicanism. It stands squarely against the vicious principles that have brought the Republican party into disrepute and which are losing it the confidence of the masses.

The United States Supreme Court a few days ago decided two more cases in which the court held that States can "bust" trusts. It has not been given out yet whether the trusts have decided to use a little salve or just go on with their business without taking any notice of the disagreeable and meddlesome courts.

As President Taft is fairly satisfied with his railroad bill as it has been passed, it must annoy the insurgents that they did not do enough to make the President get off on his ear. Perhaps the President wanted to have some fun with the insurgents and stuck in a joker or two as decoy footballs for the opposition.

WILL IT REMEDY?

If the long and short haul clause, something like the provisions for a remedy contained in the amendment offered by Senator Overman, is not to be a part of the Taft railroad bill which is now on its passage in the United States Senate, North Carolina's stock in the measure will be sold cheap. Senators Simmons and Overman and the North Carolina Representatives have done their best to have embodied in the bill some measure of relief for North Carolina from the ruinous discriminatory freight rates that so heavily burden the business and manufacturing interests of this State. If the relief shall be incomplete, half a loaf will be better than the intolerable imposition which interests of great magnitude in North Carolina suffer, under a miserable and abominable abortion of a system which enables, if not actually empowers, the Interstate Commerce Commission to consent to, if really not authorize, rates that are unreasonable and outrageously unfair, unequable and downright ruinous. In his speech Senator Overman made a glaring exposure that should evoke relief from a serious condition well calculated to provoke desperation. He stated the bald and startling facts as they exist, and if there is no remedy, the abortive efforts of the government toward an equitable solution of the traffic problem and the impotence of the Interstate Commerce Commission deserve contempt.

Under the makeshift system heretofore characterizing the functions and work of the Commission, an imposition more intollerable than the infamous Stamp Act of the British Parliament in Colonial times is acquiesced in by the Commission and permitted under the guise of law to be enforced without recourse to any power in America for fairness or justice. The very impositions which the Commission was established to inhibit, remedy and suppress are enforced either through its concurrence or impotence, most probably both.

It is not high or even higher rates of freight transportation that is responsible for the mischief and injury done to North Carolina interests, but rates that are inequitable, unreasonable and unbearable in the particular of discrimination, as was shown by the comparative figures used by Senator Overman. Relief from unjust and ruinous discrimination is the emphatic and paramount necessity of North Carolina—the total elimination and utter eradication of an infamous imposition that crushes, grinds and paralyzes the activities of an enterprising people.

North Carolina asks for no favors. She demands fairness and justice and it is reasonable to expect it. No favoritism, but a fair race in enterprise and endeavor is the demand which is going up from two million people of a State that has a vast wealth of resources to develop. Demolish the so-called system that results in artificial advantages for one competing point against another. Destroy and annihilate the methods which hamper competition, limit enterprise and balk progress.

Equal freedom from handicaps and burdens, equality in opportunities and a square deal are the only conditions that will satisfy the people of the State. The prolonged impatience of a long-suffering people is but a prelude to indignation, resentfulness and radicalism, if the condition is not ameliorated and chances evened up.

When Col. Roosevelt returns he will find that the "malefactors of great wealth" are still malefacting in spite of his skiddoo ullulations. He will also find that two trusts which he thought he "busted" have been "busted" again, if they will not take it as a joke on the Supreme Court.

"Who owns the air?" inquires the Greenville (S. C.) News. Must be owned by the trusts, as it is said the trusts are now "all in the air" over the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States.

It is said that Uncle Joe is "mending his fences" in his Illinois district. It may be necessary for him to entirely surround himself with a new barbed wire fence for fear the insurgents might get him.

Secretary Ballinger must have the size about him or else he knows the other fellow belongs to the "can't come back class". He hands out the lie like he had been taking lessons from Col. Roosevelt.

President Taft's satisfaction with the railroad bill as the House passed it is liable to lead the insurgents to believe that they utterly failed to find the main joker and let it stay in.

Halley's comet is said to be heading for the Sun at a velocity of 7,000 miles a minute. If there is any danger of a collision the sky-pilot can jump off.

Our exchanges are brimming over with references to the "sweet girl graduate". We haven't said a word about it, but she is all the same.

It is said that Roosevelt will stand by the Taft administration. Why should he do that? It has done nothing.

SOUTHERN CITIES HUSTLING.

Southern cities are manifesting more activity than at any time in the history of this country. Not only are they making progress industrially, but the cities have been aroused to the possibilities which are ahead of the proper efforts. There are very few communities that are not working like Trojans to attract capital, industries and home-seekers. They nave gone to work at it in a systematic manner with definite plans to work upon, and the organizations for the work are rapidly multiplying in every city, town and hamlet. Some cities have a half dozen clubs working on different lines.

It is interesting to note some of the plans upon which some Southern cities are working. In Savannah there is a definite plan to secure settlers on the trucking lands surrounding that city. The campaign has been going on a year or more, and in order to help the movement in a practical way the Savannah Chamber of Commerce is conducting an experiment farm with the view of showing what the surrounding lands are capable of. There is also a co-operative plan for draining the swamps and lands, so that when prospective purchasers arrive they will find the country ready for them.

It is needless to say that the Savannah plan is meeting with success, as any well directed effort will do. The South occupies the attention of this country as it never has and in Europe more is now known about it than was ever known in the past history of the country. The trend is Southward and it is the live communities that are catching the newcomers. They go to the communities and sections that are best known—which is to say that are best advertised. The town that is not up and doing is not on the map so far as seekers for new homes and locations of industries are concerned.

TALKED ENGLISH.

The Savannah Morning News says: "Col. Roosevelt spoke in English at the Sorbonne. He spoke in English in Norway. His interview with the Kaiser was in English. It is stated that during all of his time in Africa and Europe he has found the English language quite sufficient to his purposes and has only once or twice dropped momentarily into another language."

It pays Col. Roosevelt to write English and every time he talks it he stirs up things. He ought to stick to it even if he does say too much in it sometimes. Nevertheless, he uses too many words to express himself. He talks too much of it at random. That is what lead Knudsen to misunderstand him. The Norwegian statesman and others who have made a break in interpreting the Colonel's English have been called liars. He ought to talk it so he won't be misunderstood by so many careless people.

The Louisville Courier-Journal refers to "a hero who is his own horn-blower". Identification not necessary.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Halley's comet, traveling 7,000 miles a minute, may be explained by the astronomers as an astral joy rider.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Ex-President Roosevelt and the King of Norway spent more than an hour drinking tea together. Mollycoddles!—Charleston News and Courier.

It is estimated that seizures of illicit stills in Georgia will probably break all records for the fiscal year. Yet they say Georgia won't raise corn!—Atlanta Constitution.

A Chicago physician is said to have demonstrated that six drinks of whiskey have the same effect on a man's system as a hard day's work. Then what's the use of doing hard work so long as the six drinks per can be obtained.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

The cost of being born has been boosted by New York doctors; the cost of dying has gone up in Chicago; the cost of living has gone up everywhere, and this talk of "business administration in churches" breeds a sudden fear that even salvation may cease to be free.—Detroit News.

In his speech at the banquet Monday night, Gov. Weeks, of Connecticut, is reported to have said something like this: "The two greatest soldiers America has ever produced were both Virginians—Washington and Lee." That was a fine thing in Gov. Weeks to say, because it was a true thing, and he said it like a man—Richmond Times.

That the Republicans are very much afraid of the tariff reform sentiment that has cropped out so strongly since the passage of the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill is shown by the fact that they have put in the sundry civil bill a provision giving the tariff board authority to make a thorough inquiry into the cost of production in foreign countries. The alleged purpose of the provision is to get a basis for further tariff revision. The authority of the tariff board at present isn't sufficient to enable it to get such information as would assist Congress in making a scientific revision of the tariff schedules. The fact that the Republicans are opening the way for further changes in the tariff indicates that they admit that the people are not satisfied with the revision that was made last year—that, in fact, the revision wasn't what it should have been.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

The turpentine industry of the South, which has been threatened with total destruction by reason of the injurious old-fashioned methods of cutting and slashing the trees to get at the product, has received a boon in the new system of cup and gutter tappings, tested by the Department of Agriculture. The producing forests have become so depleted of thrifty trees as to have caused much concern. The movement southward of the center of greatest production has been like the progress of a consuming forest fire, raising the question as to how long the staple species of virgin timber will last. The former Georgia operators, now in Florida, are producing heavily, but how long this crop will last can only be guessed at if the old methods of producing prevail. The department has established by experiments that the cup and gutter system yields 30 per cent. more product, does not weaken the trees physically and leaves them in a thrifty condition.—Raleigh Evening Times.

Charlotte has every occasion to feel kindly towards the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association. It was organized here, and since its inception has been largely officered by Charlotte men. There are today residing in the city at least two presidents of the association, and the secretary from the outset to the present day has been a Charlotte man.

In point of numbers the convention which opens here on the 17th will probably be the biggest of the year. Gratifying progress is being made, we are pleased to learn, in plans for entertainment of the 1,200 delegates and their wives and families. Many forms of entertainment have been arranged, and delegates will be given a typical welcome. It was but fitting that this great textile association should choose Charlotte as its meeting place. Within a radius of 100 miles of the city the majority of Southern spindles are located. Besides Charlotte is the hub of the most extensive schemes of electrical development in the South.

The convention will be a notable one, and nothing will be overlooked in making the sojourn of spinners interesting, instructive and pleasant.—Charlotte News.

Unless the administration of Mr. Taft, like that of Franklin Pierce, should accomplish so little as to make his name of no importance to future historians—for Pierce is chiefly remembered as having appointed Hawthorne Collector of Customs at Salem—the coming Bancrofts will have hard work to determine from his public record the real character of the man who succeeded Roosevelt in the task of preparing the country for Democratic rule. Is he false, fickle or feeble? Is he a modern Machiavelli, using words to mask his real intent, and making open moves as feints to cover manœuvres the actual objective point? Is he a philosopher of the Mark Tapley school to whom whatever happens is for the best in the best of all possible worlds, never so earnestly bent on any achievement as not to acquiesce cheerfully in its failure and to promptly recognize the substituted as superior to his original plan? Or is he of the family of Mr. Toots, the friend of David Copperfield, from whom no set back or disappointment could draw a plaint or a protest, but who met the sharpest arrows of outrageous fortune with the placid comment, "It is of no consequence whatever?"—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

NORTHEAST RIVER BRIDGE.

Pender Chronicle Strongly Advocates the "Hungry Bluff" Location.

(Pender Chronicle.)

We had the pleasure of seeing a blue print map of the several proposed routes from Wilmington to Burgaw several days ago. Every argument is in favor of putting the bridge near Miller's landing, not right at the landing where the water is claimed to be so deep, but four hundred yards further up the river at Hungry Bluff. A bridge at that point would shorten the distance from Burgaw to Wilmington about a mile and a half, besides getting clear of the swamp on the Pender side and the miles of sand after leaving the swamp. This is the logical place for the bridge. If it were built at Blossom's ferry the rising generations would repent of our folly. Placed at Hungry Bluff it is said that the Carolina Trucking and Development Co., will themselves construct a hard road to join the rock road at Castle Haynes, thus saving New Hanover any additional expense. Mr. Miller will give the right-of-way on the Pender side.

Now why is it that the Commissioners of New Hanover and Pender cannot agree upon this site? We certainly do not know. It is claimed by some that Mr. McEachern, chairman of the New Hanover Board, holds considerable interest at Blossoms Ferry and does not want the bridge to go elsewhere. Even if this were true, surely he does not control all of New Hanover county so that the people's wills are theirs to make them his.

We trust that the position of Mr. McEachern will be ascertained before the coming election in New Hanover and that the business men of that good county will see to it that Commissioners are elected who will open this great way to North Carolina's principal sea port. This bridge will bless both counties. It will enable the Pender farmer to handle his products on the Wilmington market at a profit, it will save the Pender farmer the expense of a longer and sandier drive and the cost of paying the ferryman and it will open up Pender county to the settlement of New Hanover farmers and truckers. By building up homes and settling up land in Pender it will increase the trade of Pender merchants.

From a commercial standpoint New Hanover will receive the greatest benefit from the bridge. The trade from as far up as Duplin and Sampson will cross that bridge and much of it is now going to Goldsboro because of the miserable accommodations at Blossom's Ferry. Wilmington merchants should insist, they should demand that the Commissioners of New Hanover do all in their power to secure the bridge. As to the location New Hanover will not use the bridge but the people of Pender, Sampson and Duplin counties are the ones to travel across the bridge. Why then, should the New Hanover County Commissioners object to the Hungry Bluff location when this site is in the interest of those who will use the bridge, being one and a half mile shorter and free of sand and mud. Some action should be taken at once.

DAVIDSON STUDENT DEAD.

Member of Graduating Class Found Dead in Bed.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Davidson, May 12.—Mr. Samuel O. Fleming, a member of the graduating class, was found dead in his room in the Georgia dormitory a few minutes before 7 o'clock tonight. When found he was lying across the bed on his head and his fingers clinched, indicating that he had died in a convulsion.

At breakfast this morning Mr. Fleming appeared cheerful, but later in the day he complained of feeling unwell. About 3 o'clock he left a party of friends, saying that he was going to his room for his usual afternoon sleep. That was the last known of him until found cold in death shortly after supper. He was rather delicate and had been looking badly for several days, but no one thought that his case was serious.

Mr. Fleming was a favorite on the campus and was one of the college's brightest students. The whole college is shocked at his sudden taking away and all exercises will be suspended tomorrow out of respect to his memory. He had recently secured a position on the faculty of Austin College at Sherman, Texas, and was expecting to take up his duties next fall.

Mr. Fleming was aged about 20 years and was a member of a prominent South Carolina family. At Davidson he was on the honor roll for three years, monitor two years, editor of Quips and Cranks, the college annual, three years, social editor of the Davidson College Magazine, secretary and treasurer of the student body and a member of the German Club.

The body will be embalmed tomorrow morning and carried to Charlotte in an automobile from which point it will be shipped to his home in Laurens. Members of the family will meet the remains at Spartanburg.

TRIAL OF BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Case of J. S. Brock vs. Waccamaw Lumber Co. Taken Up in Federal Court Yesterday—Two Negroes to Prison.

The criminal side of the United States District Court docket was wound up yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon the Circuit Court convened for the trial of civil matters, the first case called being that of J. S. Brock against the Waccamaw Lumber Company for alleged damages sustained by reason of an accident some three years ago which resulted in the loss of an eye.

The case was called at 3 o'clock and 25 minutes later the jury had been selected and empaneled. The other trial jurors in the court room were excused until 10 o'clock Monday morning, when the libel case of British steamer "Manchester Miller" against 2,855 tons of manure salt, consigned to the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company is set for trial. The complaint in the action of Brock against the lumber company, originally filed in the State courts, was read by Joseph W. Little, Esq., senior counsel for the plaintiff, and the answer by Thos. W. Davis, Esq., of counsel for the defendant. The complaint alleges that on November 4th, 1907, while in the employ of the defendant company in operating a lathe machine, a piece of wood was thrown violently against his head, resulting in the permanent injury of one of his eyes; that the accident was caused by the negligence of the defendant company in requiring him to operate machinery with a defective belt, resulting in irregular motion of the machinery; that the plaintiff is a young man of family and dependent entirely upon manual labor for support and by reason of the loss of the eye has not been able to earn the same amount of money that was paid him prior to the accident. He asks for $10,000 actual damages and $408 special damages, including medical bills. The defendant, in its answer, sets up that the plaintiff was an experienced workman and was fully aware of the danger and risks incident to the operation of lathing machinery; that he had been fully advised and instructed as to the machinery in question and after knowing all this voluntarily entered the employment of the company; that plaintiff never made complaint to any officials of the company about defective machinery.

After the pleadings had been read Judge Boyd stated that he desired it understood at the beginning that when objection was raised by counsel the witness must stop until the objection had been passed upon and that counsel not engage in any controversy among themselves, but address the court.

The plaintiff was first witness called. He testified that at the time of the accident he was 31 years old and married. He then told of the accident, how it occurred and under what circumstances. He stated that on or about November 4th, 1907, a piece fell out of the belt connecting the lathe machine and that he reported to the superintendent, who instructed the millwright to make repairs; that repairs were hastily made and the millwright told plaintiff to start the machinery and use belt until he got time to fix it better. The repairs placed in the belt, he testified, made the machinery jump and a piece of wood flew and struck him on the side of the head, resulting in the injury complained of.

The next witness for the plaintiff was Sylvester Carr, colored, who was working at the plant at the time of the accident. At the conclusion of his testimony court took a recess until 10 o'clock this morning.

A case against John Smith and James Henderson, charged with stealing a brass mount from the government launch "Chase" last July, occupied the time of the morning session of court. The boat was in the service of the Wilmington Division of the National Reserves at the time the property was stolen and Mr. J. M. Murphy, a member of the division, detected Smith in the act of selling the mount to a junk dealer. Smith claimed that Henderson gave him the property to sell to the junk dealer and that he did not have any knowledge of it having been stolen. Henderson denied implication in the robbery, but a witness, to whom he had confessed, was introduced and testified against him. Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., represented Smith and Brooke G. Empie, Esq., appeared for Henderson, and each apparently tried to convict the client of the other. District Attorney Seawell took the position that both were guilty and the jury concurred in this view. The defendants were sentenced by Judge Boyd to 15 months each in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga.

Judge Boyd yesterday morning pronounced judgment in the case of Nash Robinson, of Columbus county, convicted Thursday of retailing and operating an illicit distillery, the defendant being required to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

United States Marshal Claudius Dockery arrived yesterday morning from New York, where he has been as a witness in a bankruptcy case, and was pleasantly greetded by many friends.

Dr. J. G. Murphy, admitted by both sides as an expert, testified that the plaintiff was permanently blind in the eye that is alleged to have been injured by the accident. The evidence in the case is being taken down by Mr. Meares Harriss, the expert court stenographer. It is thought that the case will reach the jury some time late this afternoon.

TROUPE'S EFFECTS ATTACHED

Proceedings Instituted in Superior Court Yesterday by Negroes Alleged to Have Been Injured When Seats Collapsed.

As a result of the accident Thursday night, when a tier of the circus seats of the Billy Kersands minstrels, showing under canvas at Fourth and Castle street, collapsed, precipitating a number of colored people to the ground and painfully injuring several, Maria Hill, colored, alleged to have received a broken leg and other injuries, through her counsel, Ricaud & Empie, yesterday instituted in Superior Court attachment proceedings against the Billy Kersands Minstrels and B. H. Nye, manager, to cover a claim of $5,000 as damages, and the effects of the troupe were seized by Deputy Sheriff W. Harvey Cox.

The action did not stop the performance last night as the minstrels early in the day made arrangements to use the Academy of Music last night. It was stated yesterday afternoon that the minstrels claim everything connected with the show except tent and seats which are said to be the property of the manager. The only way the minstrels and manager may regain possession of their property is by filing bond to cover the amount of any damages that arise from the accident. In case no bond is given the property will probably be held in the custody of the sheriff until a judgment is secured by the plaintiff against the defendants, when it will be offered for sale.

It was reported on the streets yesterday that a large number of negroes were painfully injured by the collapse of the seats and that one woman had been taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital in a precarious condition. Inquiry at the hospital elicited the information that none of the injured was taken there for treatment. It is thought that Maria Hill, colored, who was removed after the accident to a house on Castle street, was the most seriously injured.

Deputy Sheriff Cox levied on everything belonging to the troupe at Fourth and Castle streets and also levied on the car at foot of Third street. Late yesterday afternoon the trunks were released after affidavits had been made that they belonged to the showmen individually. The Pullman car, valued at about $30,000, was also released on affidavit of the manager that it was the property of a person in Jacksonville, Fla., from whom it was leased. The tent, stage, chairs, the circus seats, etc., are held by the sheriff at Fourth and Castle streets in the custody of an officer. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the show people.

NEW CUSTOM HOUSE MATTER.

Titles to Property Will be Examined by Attorney General Soon.

The work of transcribing the records of the property to be used as a site for the new custom house will be completed at an early date by the clerk of the Federal court and the deeds will be forwarded to the Attorney General at Washington for an examination of the titles. This will be the first move toward beginning the work to arrange for the new building for which an appropriation of $300,000 was secured some time ago.

It has required some time for the government to perfect legal arrangement with the property holders, but it is believed now that all details in this connection have been decided upon. Collector B. F. Keith in response to constant inquiry in regard to the new custom house wrote District Attorney H. F. Seawell to ascertain what progress was being made in the matter and yesterday received the following reply:

"Mr. B. F. Keith, Collector of Customs,

Dear Sir:—The Custom House matter has been attended to, except a supplemental order which I sent to Judge Connor this morning. As soon as the clerk can certify the record to Washington and the matter can be passed upon by the Attorney General the work will begin. Very truly,

H. F. SEAWELL,
United States Attorney.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Haddock will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their seven-year-old son, Floyd R. Haddock, which occurred at the family residence, No. 204 Castle street, at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of only a few days. The little one became seriously ill last Monday and all that skilled physicians and loving hands could do were in vain, the child sinking gradually until the end yesterday morning. The funeral services will be held from the lodge at 11 o'clock this morning and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Petitions for Another Train.

Petitions, setting forth the desirability of additional train service on the A. & Y., are being circulated for signatures in the several towns between Wilmington and Fayetteville and will later be presented to proper officials of the Atlantic Coast Line. The petitions, it is understood, are being large signed and it is generally hoped that the Coast Line will grant the request for additional service between Wilmington and Fayetteville.

MIGRATORY BEACH BIRDS.

Prof. Pearson and Curator H. H. Brimley Off This Coast.

Prof. T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the State Audubon Society, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from a week's sojourn with Curator H. H. Brimley, of the State Museum, on the North Carolina coast between Southport and Lockwood's Folly, Brunswick county, the object of their visit being a study of the migratory beach birds and the gathering of data for a forthcoming publication of the Audubon Society with reference to this specie. Prof Pearson says that the trip was very successful and that many fine specimens were gathered. Curator Brimley will remain in the Brunswick camp for a few days longer before returning to the city. The stomachs and reproductive organs of many of the birds have been preserved by Prof. Pearson and will be used by him in the fight for egislation against the wholesale shooting of the species both on their flight southward and northward as is now permitted under some of the State laws. The effort will be to show that the mating of birds is interrupted by the wholesale slaughter of the birds on both migrations and he expects to turn the information gained here to good account.

EXPOSITION FOR NEW ORLEANS

Governor and Mayor of City Want Great Panama Celebration—Telegrams Received in Washington—The Responses.

What is regarded as one of the greatest opportunities for the South since reconstruction is the securing for New Orleans the endorsement of Congress as the logical point for the great Panama Exposition to celebrate the opening of the canal. San Francisco is an active and a strong competitor and telegrams received by Mayor MacRae and other citizens in Wilmington yesterday indicate that the fight between the South and West for the great exposition is becoming acute. New Orleans appeals to the South for its support of that city as the logical point for the Exposition and the South is rallying nobly to the call. It is pointed out that the immediate support of every Southern Congressman is very necessary, and it is hoped that the influence of every town and city in the interior will be brought to bear to secure this necessary Congressional support. The following telegrams were exchanged yesterday and show that Wilmington and its commercial bodies are keenly alive to the situation and will do all possible in support of New Orleans:

"New Orleans, May 12, 1910.

"Mayor of Wilmington, Wilmington, N. C.

"Please immediately wire each of your Senators and Representatives in Congress urging them to rally to the assistance of the Lousiana delegation and secure endorsement New Orleans for the Panama Exposition. This is the greatest opportunity for the South since the reconstruction. San Francisco is a strong competitor and the immediate support of every Southern Congressman is very necessary.

J. Y. SANDERS,
Governor of Louisiana.
MARTIN BEHRMAN,
Mayor of New Orleans."

The reply of President Taylor, of the Chamber of Commerce in behalf of the city and Mayor MacRae, was as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., May 13th.

"Senators Overman and Simmons, Washington, D. C.

"Please co-operate with the Louisiana Senators in securing endorsement of New Orleans for the Panama Exposition. I am informed that San Francisco is a strong competitor. For New Orleans to secure the exposition would be a great benefit to the South. New Orleans is geographically the logical point.

"J. A. TAYLOR,
"President Wilmington Chamber of Commerce."

MRS. CAROLINE STOLTER DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon at Home of Her Niece.

Friends will learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Caroline Stolter, relict of the late Henry Stolter, who preceded her to the grave some fourteen years ago, which occurred at 4:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. P. McClammy, No. 620 South Front street. Mrs. Stolter was born in Wilmington February 22nd, 1825, and was, therefore in the 86th year of her age, being possibly one of the oldest native residents of the city. She had resided in Wilmington all her life and was held in the highest regard by those who enjoyed her acquaintance. Mrs. Stolter had been in poor health for the past several years but had been confined to her room only for the past ten weeks. Her death resulted from dropsy and the general infirmities of one of her age. She leaves no children, the nearest relative being her niece with whom she resided. The funeral will be conducted at 11 o'clock, Rev. Father C. Dennen, of the Catholic church, officiating, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Death of Little Daughter.

Many Wilmington friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. James, of Atlanta, Ga., will learn with much regret of the death of their two-year-old daughter, Edna Marvin, which occurred at the family residence yesterday morning. Mrs. James was Miss Eva Murphy, of this city, before her marriage, and has been living away from Wilmington about four years. The body will be brought to this city on the 1:15 o'clock train today and taken directly from the station to Bellevue cemetery, where the funeral and interment will take place. The services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. McGeachy.

Bills of Local Interest.

Representative Godwin introduced in Congress Thursday three bills providing for an appropriation of $50,000 for the improvement of Lumber river, Robeson county; authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to purchase a site and establish an agricultural live stock experiment station in his district, and providing for the erection of a monument at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, to commemorate the distinguished services of the American army there during the war of the revolution.

The Auxetophone.

A trial will be made of the Auxetophone at Lumina tonight for furnishing music for dancing. As has been explained before, the Auxetophone is an instrument which, by means of compressed air, plays selections in about the same volume as when originally played by the orchestra itself.

IT SAVES YOU MONEY.

The special half price sale of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., means the saving of a fey dollars on every family's yearly bill for medicines.

Mr. J. Hicks Bunting has so much faith in the superior merit of this medicine that he says: "If Dr. Howard's specific does not cure you, come back to our store and we will return your money."

This remedy is not an ordinary medicine. It is the favorite formula of a well known physician, and has the endorsement of hundreds of physicians of eminence in their profession, who prescribe it in all cases of constipation, dyspepsia or liver trouble, knowing from experience that it will make a complete and lasting cure.

ELLEN RICKMERS DAMAGED.

Remains Ashore With Machinery Disabled—Three Tugs.

With her machinery disabled as the result of swinging around after she went ashore in the river on Thursday, the German steamer Ellen Rickmers, fast aground near buoy No. 10, three miles below the city, will probably be pulled off this morning by the three tugs that went to her assistance last night.

The vessel was resting in an easy position on Thursday, but the high tide that night caused her to change her position and planted her stern fast in the mud. This disabled her rudder, rendering her completely helpless. The steamer will be towed to the Seaboard dock when she is pulled off and an attempt will be made to repair her.

The tugs Sea King, Capt. Williams; Blanche, Capt. Dosher, and the Navassa went down the river to her last night to make an effort to pull her off and bring her up the river early this morning. The steamer has a cargo of 6,000 tons of kainit consigned to the Seaboard.

Programme for Next Week Includes a Number of Events.

Under the direction of Mr. Chas. Dushan, the recently elected superintendent, the Boys' Brigade has mapped out a programme for next week that will keep members and their friends busy. Monday night at 7:15 Company A. Bible Class will meet for study, led by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church. The meeting for study will be followed by a debate, the query being, "Resolved, That Immigration Shall be Further restricted by Taxation." The affirmative will be represented by Messrs. J. A. Ferguson and Daniel Register, and the negative by Messrs. O. C. Hill and H. A. Keene.

A reception complimentary to the members of the Wilmington baseball team will be given Tuesday night. Not only the members of the Brigade but the general public will be extended an invitation to attend and greet the new baseball players.

The fifth anniversary of the founding of Company B will be celebrated Wednesday night with the annual dinner. The occasion is being looked forward to with much pleasure by the members.

The first games in a bowling contest among the members will be played Friday night. Two teams have been organized under the captaincy of Messrs. Albert Elmer and Charles Davis, respectively. The series of games will continue for four weeks.

The second annual excursion of the Brigade will be held June 2nd, further announcements regarding which will be made later.

The building is being put in first-class condition. The armory is open for use of members every day from 9 A. M. to 10:30 P. M., with the exception of Sundays.

MARKED CHANGES IN COMET.

Brighter in Past Three Days—Shows Violent Tidal Action.

Geneva, N. Y., May 13.—Dr. William R. Brooks, of Smith's Observatory, reports remarkable changes in Halley's comet during the last three days. The nuclues, the brightest part of the comet's head, has grown larger and brighter while the coma, surrounding the nucleus has greatly changed in form and is now distorted and much broader on the side nearest the sun. This, says Prof. Brooks, gives evidence of violent tidal action.

The dark streak extending back from the nucleus through the middle of the tail has also grown broader, dividing a large part of the tail into two distinct branches.

KAUFMANN AND LANGFORD

Signed for 20-Round Bout on 11th of June.

Philadelphia, May 13.—Match-maker McCarney, of the Metropolitan Athletic Club, San Francisco, today signed Al. Kaufmann and Sam Langford to meet in a 20-round bout. The fight will take place on June 11th.

20TH OF MAY CELEBRATION.

Programme of Events Arranged by Wilmington Light Infantry.

The 20th of May will be observed by the Wilmington Light Infantry with the customary events at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, arrangements for which are now being made by a committee composed of Messrs. Joe Jacobs, Z. K. Bell, Paul L. Cantwell, Louis Orrell and Earle C. Dickinson. A new feature is a competitive drill and a silver loving cup will be given as a prize to the best drilled member of the company. The competitive shoot for medal will be held on the rifle range, west of Lumina, during the afternoon. There will be strong competition among the company's marksmen for the medal which has been offered. A squad shoot will take place later in the afternoon, the company being represented by five members and the Reserve Corps by a team of like number. The concluding event of the day will be a souvenir dance at Lumina at night.

THE CAROLINA YACHT CLUB.

Will Open Season Today—Some Improvements Decided Upon.

The Carolina Yacht Club, Wrightsville Beach, will open the 1910 season today and the club house will remain open for the use of members throughout the Summer and unti the late Fall. The club house will be in charge of Mr. James Walton, as formerly. Mr. Edwin A. Metts is commodore, Mr. R. C. Cantwell, superintendent, and Mr. R. G. Rankin, Jr., purser. The contract for the addition to the club house verandas on the ocean side has been let and it is expected that work will be commenced some time soon. The addition will be 30 feet in width and will extend from the present verandas, in the direction of the ocean, for 60 feet. The pilings will be placed on concrete bases and buried six feet in the ground so that there will be no chance for the veranda to be undermined by the capers of the waves.

Another Trip to Sea.

The steamer Wilmington will make another trip to sea Sunday, stopping at Carolina Beach and Southport, going down the river and on the return trip to the city. These Sunday trips are proving most pleasant outings. The boat leaves the wharf at 10 A. M. and returns to the city at 6 P. M.

AVIATOR'S TRAGIC DEATH.

Young Frenchman Killed in Monoplane Flight.

Lyons, France, May 13.—Chauvetto, a young Frenchman, met a tragic death here today while competing in the races of an aviation meeting.

Shortly after leaving the ground in an Antoinette monoplane Michelin seemed to lose control of the machine, which bumped into a telephone booth and then knocked over a derrick which in falling struck the aviator, fracturing his skull.

When the horrified spectators saw what had happened they wrecked the barriers which had confined the crowds and rushed to the spot where the monoplane was lying. Michelin was still in the seat of the machine. He was taken to a hospital where his skull was trephined in a vain attempt to save his life. He died shortly after the operation.

Michelin was only 23 years old. To an assistant who wished him luck as his machine arose into the air the young aviator said:

"No more aviation for me after this meet. I have had enough."

N. Y. CENTRAL SOUTH?

Inspection of Terminals in Florida Gives Rise to Report.

Apalachicola, Fla., May 13.—An inspection yesterday of terminal property at Port St. Joe, Fla., by New York Central officials and C. W. Hotchkiss, general manager of the Chicago, Indiana & Southern, lends credence to rumors that the Central is contemplating the construction of a Southern line with a view to handling traffic passing through the Panama Canal.

It is known positively that the road has for some time been negotiating for valuable water frontage at Port St. Joe. The Bay of St. Joseph is regarded as one of the safest harbors on the gulf.

Theatrical

All next week the Academy will offer delightful vaudeville for the amusement-loving public, and it will be at a very small price—15 cents. The attraction will be the well known and popular Reinfield's Lady Minstrels, which have been playing big time in the vaudeville field and a merry melange of mirth and music will be served up in bright and snappy style. The company is composed of several clever comedians and bevy of pretty girls, and the performances given are of the musical comedy order, though, of course, not as long. It was originally intended to present the attraction in the Crystal Palace, but owing to the expense attached to bring the company here, the warm weather, and the smallness of the Palace, the attraction was shifted to the Academy. Opening with matinee at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon three performances will be given daily, the hours being 4 o'clock every afternoon and 8:15 and 9:15 o'clock at night. The management of the Academy guarantees the attraction to be a refined one in every particular and asks that it be not confounded with any other type of show. Electric fans will be kept a buzzing at all times in the Academy.

THE FOOTBALL RULES.

Forward Pass Retained—Reform of Football Now Complete.

New York, May 13.—The inter-collegiate football rules committee at a meeting in New York today decided to retain the forward pass unrestricted. The committee framed a number of rules designed to throw safeguards around the operation of this and other plays and adjourned sine die having completed the task of reforming football which has kept it busy much of the time since the first of last February.

The working out of the details of the new game was left in the hands of a sub-committee composed of Walter Camp, of Yale; Dr. Carl Williams, of the University of Pennsylvania, and Percy D. Haughton, of Harvard, but as the new regulations are largely theoretical, it is admitted that the precise results will not be known until the football season of 1910 is underway. Members of the committee hope however, that they have succeeded in devising a plan whereby the game will not be robbed of its spectacular features, yet will be more safe than it has been in the past.

PANAMA CANAL.

Sixth Year of American Construction Facts and Figures.

Washington, May 13.—On May 3rd, the sixth year of American construction of the Panama canal ended and the canal record has presented an interesting review of what has been accomplished. Altogether 105,888,072 cubic yards of earth and rock have been removed. That leaves to be taken out of the water approaches to the canal 29,332,052 cubic yards of material, while the steam shovels have to dig out 38,827,617 yards of solid earth and rock.

The Culebra cut presents the hardest problem, for there remain to be excavated in that miniature mountain range 31,128,845 cubic yards but as this is being carried off at the rate of 1,240,000 yards per month, the end will soon be in sight.

While all this excavation is going on, rapid work is being done in the construction of the great dams and locks of the canal and it is estimated that by June 1st and average of 2,500 cubic yards of concrete will be laid each day.

CAUSE OF MINE ACCIDENT.

Defective Ventilation Blamed for Deaths of Fifteen Men.

Columbus, O., May 13.—Defective ventilation, the result of inadvertence or carelessness, caused the explosion in the mine of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company at Amsterdam, Jefferson county, on the night of April 21, resulting in the death of fifteen miners.

This is the finding of Chief Mine Inspector George Harrison, after a thorough investigation, in his report just submitted to Gov. Harmon.

St. Louis, New Orleans, Baltimore, Kansas City and Denver are candidates for the honor. A secret session was held this morning.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Hazel Lewis, a white woman, apparently about 22 years old, was arrested at 12th and Princess streets last night by Mounted Officer T. M. Hall on the charge of drunkenness. She was lodged in the city prison. She told the officers that she came here about two weeks ago from Columbia, S. C.

—McDuffie Hines, a colored youth, was arraigned in the Recorder's court yesterday for stealing strawberries on display in front of a store, but on account of the youthfulnes of the defendant the case was dismissed on the promise of the mother to give the lad a sound thrashing. There were no other cases on the docket for trial.

—Constable W. B. Savage yesterday afternoon arrested Leslie Winner on a warrant charging him with assault with serious injury on W. E. Bedell, alleged to have taken place at Carolina Beach May 12th. The warrant was sworn out before Justice Harriss by Capt. J. W. Harper, on information and belief. The trial has been postponed for about ten days. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., will represent the defendant.

—"Hugo the Hunchback", is the title of the feature picture of an excellent Saturday bill at the Bijou theatre today. It is a story startling in its intensity and dramatic effects. It is a rather pathetic story but one true to life, showing as it does that often a person mistreated by his master lives to see himself famous and prosperous while the one who once had all that he desired of this world's goods becomes a beggar through dissipation.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACES

Twelve Drivers Entered Exciting Contest Last Night.

Brighton Beach, N. Y., May 13.—Twelve racing automobiles, handled by twelve drivers for whom speed and sharp turns have no terrors, shot away on the oval motordrome here at 9:02 o'clock tonight in the first 24 hour automobile race of the season here about. Burman, driving Buick No. 2, was first to sweep around the mile track in 1.13 closely followed by the other Buick entry. At the end of the first hour Burman had negotiated 56 miles, equalling the Brighton Beach record made by a car of the same make last year. Buick No. 1 was second.

Marion Car No. 5, driven by Hubert Anderson, who was substituting for Louis Strang skidded at the turn in to the stretch at 12.18 and crashed into the fence.

The car turned over three times, but Anderson escaped with scarcely a scratch. His mechanic, William F. Bradley, was taken to the hospital tent unconscious and the doctors feared that his skull had been fractured.

Strang said he would have his car back on the track within 90 minutes. At the time of the accident it was eighth in position.

The race was stopped at 12:50 due, it was reported to an accident on the back stretch. Investigation, however, developed that the officials had found the feed wire to the signal lamps in front of the judges stand dropping dangerously. It was feared that the cars could not run under it safely and time was taken out while repairs were made.

After 12 minutes delay all cars with the exception of the previously disabled Marion, resumed.

William F. Bradley, the mechanic injured in the accident to the Marion car, died this morning in the Coney Island hospital. It was his first 24 hour race. Bradley, who was 29 years old and married, lived in Newark, N. J.

SOUTHERN THEATRE MANAGERS

Declare For Open Door Policy at Session in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., May 13.—That a determined fight is to be made in behalf of the open door policy among theatres throughout the South, and for which there has been a clamor in many sections, was made emphatically evident at a special called meeting of the association of Southern theatre managers held last night in this city. The large number of theatrical men present lost little time in expressing themselves as in favor of the open door, action of officers of the association in entering the open door agreement, signed by theatre managers throughout the country last week, being ratified without a dissenting vote.

This action ends speculation as to the object of the nation-wide movement, which has the so-called theatrical trust as its target. However, invitations have been extended to producers who are regarded as being affiliated with the combination to present their attractions in the play houses belonging to members of the association. That a warm fight will be waged is evident if persistent rumors to the effect that Klaw and Erlanger are looking for theatre sites in Atlanta, Macon and other Southern cities are true. Jake Wells, president of the association of Southern theatre managers, expresses himself as thoroughly pleased with prospects for instituting the open door throughout the country.

FIRE AT STOKESDALE

Disastrous Fire in Guilford County Town Yesterday.

Winston-Salem, May 13.—Fire at Stokesdale, a small town in Guilford county, at 1 o'clock this morning, burned the following stores: T. D. Young, general merchandise; Stokesdale Hardware Company; Masonic Hall; R. W. Pegram, grocer; W. G. Nelson, barber; V. E. Vaughn, confectionaries. The fire originated in the store of R. W. Pegram. The total loss is $20,000.

PATHFINDING CAR.

New York Herald-Atlanta Journal Scout at Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., May 13.—At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon the path-finding car going over the New York Herald-Atlanta Journal national auto highway, arrived in this city, after a run from High Point, where the party spent last night. The car has been making rapid progress with the exception of some time spent at Winston-Salem, where the party spent considerable time looking over new roads. It is a matter of necessity for the next contest to leave out Winston-Salem or Greensboro and from the favorable report made by Mr. George J. McLean, representative of the N. Y. Herald, the next tour will not touch Greensboro, but will go by Winston-Salem over the newly built roads from Lexington.

The party left New York last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and expects to reach Atlanta at the same hour Saturday night of this week. The party is composed of L. M. Bradley, advertising manager of the United States Motor Company; Henry Rolfe, driver; N. Lazernick, photographer; W. T. Walters, staff correspondent Atlanta Journal; and George J. McLean, assistant news editor New York Herald. The party is driving a 45-horse power Columbia touring car and left on its trip south, expecting to reach Spartanburg this afternoon and spend the night there.

RUSSIA AND JEWS

Expulsion of Those Residing Illegally in The Country.

Kiev, Russia, May 13.—The expulsion of the Jews residing illegally in Kiev, will be resumed tomorrow. In some instances, a delay has been granted to permit a settlement of their affairs but all of those marked for expulsion must leave the city before June 14. The order of expulsion was issued as a result of an agitation which began in the Duma and originally provided that the expulsion should take place on April 28 last. Subsequently the order was suspended by Premier Stolypin to permit a further examination in Jewish claims of residence. The order applies to other cities and towns where Jews are residing without the pale, and local commissions were appointed to revise the list of those affected by the order with the expectation that a large proportion would be allowed to remain undisturbed.

The Kiev commission has considered thus far about 1,000 cases, of which 850 have been found to be subject to expulsion. The governor-general has reviewed the conviction of the commission and confirmed the expulsion of 700 of those listed.

The Jews remaining in Kiev will be allowed to occupy summer villas outside the city only through special permission granted in individual cases.

IMMIGRATION CONSIDERED.

Commissioners and Agents Have Conference at Washington.

Washington, May 13.—Immigration commissioners and agents from half a dozen points were in conference today with Benjamin S. Cable, the assistant secretary of commerce and labor and Commissioner General of Immigration Daniel F. Keefe.

There was a general interchange of views regarding conditions along the Atlantic coast and on the Canadian and Mexican borders.

A problem with which the government has to contend is the smuggling of Chinese and Japanese along those borders, the vast territory to be covered making the work especially difficult.

INSPECTORS TO EXAMINE.

Federal Experts Will Enquire Into Sinking of River Packet.

St. Louis, May 13.—Orders for a Federal investigation of the sinking of the river packet City of Satillo in which 12 lives were lost Wednesday night, were issued today. The crew of the wrecked steamer will be brought here from Glen Park for examination as soon as they can be spared from the boat.

Ten of the drowned bodies are still in the water. Drags have been placed around the half submerged boat to prevent the bodies from being carried down the river.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Wilmington People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

James Hansley, 309 N. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "For some time my back and kidneys troubled me, no doubt due to constant standing. I had dull, nagging backaches and a sharp pain across my loins. I could not stoop or lift without having twinges throughout my body. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were too frequent in passage. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and used them as directed. In a few days the backache and other annoyances ceased and have not returned since. I give this testimonial in the hope that some other sufferer from kidney trouble will be benefited thereby."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FIRE AT CHERAW, S. C.

Ten Thousand Dollar Fire in 'Row Frame Buildings.

Cheraw, S. C., May 13.—A ten thousand dollar fire here last night which might have been put out with a quart of water when first discovered, has made Cheraw awake to the necessity of having a fire department. Though there was nothing but a bucket brigade to fight the flames, it did such effcient work that the fire was confined to two frame buildings.

The fire started through some accident about 12:45 in an old frame building in the heart of the town. Two frame buildings were together, one owned by T. P. Huntley and the other by G. Walker Duval. They were divided into a number of places of business and occupied by negro tenants, a barber shop, shoe shop and restaurant in the one story building.

From these a large two story building owned by M. B. Smith and occupied by C. E. Pratt and the Cheraw Colored Hearse Co., was set fire and burned. The second floor of the building was used for a negro school. Mr. Smith is the heaviest loser among the owners of the property and C. E. Pratt among the merchants.

The insurance was light, few of the owners of property had any insurance at all. The combined insurance amounted to about $3,000.

Already this morning the premises with their smoking ruins are being cleared off and the foundations will be laid at once for handsome modern brick buildings that will have the very best class of tenants and Cheraw will provide against fires in the future by a good department.

The Cheraw Cash Grocery Co. in a brick building adjacent to the fire was damaged some by fire and some by water, but their loss will not be heavy.

CHARLOTTE INCREASES TAX.

Near Beer Saloons to Pay $1,200 and be Regulated.

Charlotte, N. C., May 13.—An ordinance increasing the tax on near beer dealers, and providing for more stringent regulations, passed first reading last night at the aldermanic meeting. The matter will be taken up again this evening however, for second reading.

The new measure increases the license tax to $1,200 per annum. It provides for a thorough inspection at all times by the mayor and authorities. It also authorizes the city to revoke a license, if at any time real beer or whiskey is sold. If run, in future near beer establishments must be open to inspection at all times.

TO PROTECT MANILA MEN.

Revenue Agents Will Regulate Exports of Philippine Cigars.

Manila, May 13.—At the request of the Manila Tobacco Association unanimously expressed, the collector of internal revenue has undertaken to regulate the exportation of cigars to the United States in the quality ratios agreed upon by the tobaco interests. According to the understanding, each shipment must contain high grade tobacco to a proportion of not less than 35 per cent. The low grades are limited to 15 per cent and the mediums to from 50 to 60 per cent of the whole.

'QUAKE BULLETIN ISSUED.

Shocks 2,000 to 2,500 Miles Distant Recorded at Washington.

Washington, May 13.—The weather bureau today issued an earthquake bulletin, giving records of shocks recorded on the seismographs of the bureau early this morning. The disturbance appeared to be about 2,000 or 2,500 miles distant, but its direction from Washington is not ascertainable.

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Live-stock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

MRS. A. I. YOUNG,

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 13.—A very sharp further advance in the cotton market was followed by a considerable reaction late today and the close was barely steady net one point lower to 15 points higher, generally speaking 7 to 15 points higher on the old crop and one lower to two higher on the new. The opening was steady at a decline of 2 points on May but generally 1 to 8 points higher in response to steady cables and large English spot sales. May, which was influenced by a little realizing at the start quickly firmed up with the rest of the list and the whole market advanced rapidly during the morning on the talk of an improved spot demand, reports of firmer interior markets, continued dry weather in the southwest, numerous private crop advices of a bullish character, suggesting a bullish bureau on June 2nd, bull support and covering. Wall street and foreign bonses were active buyers on the advance, presumably to cover shorts or undo straddles, while there appeared to be broadening demand for the new crop both from shorts and fresh buyers. The demand slackened around 15.80 for May, 15.79 for July and 13.16 for October or 18 to 25 points above the closing figures of the previous day and in the case of the old crop, 180 to 187 points above the low level of last month. But while operations for a reaction were at first restricted by apprehensions of the renewed covering, the market gradually became easier during the afternoon under heavy realizing with the new crop losing practically all its gain on private reports of beneficial showers in the southwest. Spot markets officially reported were 1-8 to 3-8c higher. Private cables reported a good trade demand in Liverpool and said that a good business was doing in Manchester. Leading bull operators are credited with having taken large profits on the advance but they appeared to be giving the market a good deal of support on the late decline.

Receipts at the ports today were 8,078 bales against 7,603 last week and 18,070 last year. For the week 45,000 bales against 52,978 last week, and 90,119 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 3,487 bales against 8,283 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points advance, middling uplands 16.05; middling gulf 16.30; sales 14,394.

Futures opened and closed barely steady.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW.

New York, May 13.—Unquestionably the bull hand has been on the lever during the past week when prices have advanced 83 to 84 a bale on the present crop and 81.50 to 82 on the new crop. An interesting feature of the week is that even August and September have begun to waive up. July has been really the center of events, however, and the May option though undoubtedly strong has, to some extent, been relegated to the background. May shorts have not a great deal of time remaining in which to make large deliveries if they intend to do so. The story is that the South has been scoured for cotton to send here without the success which was at one time expected. Some unbiased observers put the situation in this blunt fashion: "The bears have been whipped and cotton is going to 17 cents." However this may be the tone of late has undoubtedly been strong. Spinners' taking have recently increased sharply. Receipts at the ports and interior towns have been small. The statistical position has steadily gained strength. The spot demand at the south is said to have increased materially and prices there have been buoyant. At Liverpool the spot sales have ranged from 10,000 to 15,000 bales a day. At Alexandria, Egypt, prices have advanced over 200 points. The certificated stock here which was recently increased rapidly has latterly turned the other way. Moderate decreases have taken place. The other day freight room was engaged for 25,000 bales for shipment to Europe and 50,000 to 60,000 to be sent south. On Thursday over 5,000 bales were actually exported from New York, more than 6,000 bales were sold in addition. According to the government reports the rainfall has been much below normal of late in Texas, Alabama and Mississippi, as well as in Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida. Trade in England and Germany has recently improved. Fall River's sales of printcloths showed some tendency to increase. Yet it is true that some of the crop reports from the South are very favorable. The outlook in Texas is said to be on the whole good. Leading bulls have been quietly selling July freely here on the rise to secure profits. The heavy covering of late has necessarily reduced the short interest materially. General speculation suffer from the fact that the market is so largely dominated by a pool. With current prices of cotton so high, it is predicted that the South will bend every energy to raise as big a crop as possible. The recent advance has been so sharp and rapid that some are looking for at least a temporary set back.

On the whole, however, bullish influences as may be gathered from the sharp advance have predominated. Friday was another bull day with a big leap in prices. This was followed by a set back on heavy liquidation.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

New York, May 13.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Little new business has developed in pig iron, although in certain directions more inquiries are noted. Specifications on finished products are heavier, with a considerable inquiry from the railroads, yet actual orders are not large.

Quietness pervades the dry goods markets, orders being of a hand-to-mouth character all along the line, but anticipation of deliveries on some lines of fall cottons is noted, the advance business booked by jobbers being exceptionally good. Cotton goods show fractional advances in some lines for converting and printing, but manufacturers complain that orders are being booked below the current cost of production. Export trade is light. Woolens and worsted are quiet. Yarns show a little more movement at a sacrifice on costs.

Immediate trading in boots and shoes is quiet, but the business now placed shows a decided gain over several months back and shipments continue to increase. Most kinds of sole-leather are firm.

THE STOCK MARKET.

New York, May 13.—Illeness and neglect eclipse all signs of interest in the stock market today. The traditional mid-summer dullness rarely finds a parallel for the long waits for single transactions which were the rule today. The imminence of a two day's holiday interval in London furnished a more rational explanation for the abstention from the market.

The influence of the London situation on speculative sentiment was increased by the evidence of a hadening money market at that center.

The foreign exchange market was rather disordered and fluctuated with violence at recoveries from the recent low points. The more authoritative reports of the large volume of American bonds being placed abroad were without influence in the exchange market. Wide movements in a few individual stocks supplied the only features of interest in the market. Only rumors could be pointed to as explanation.

The bulge in the Canadian group pulled prices in the latter part of the day, but the movement was inconclusive and the day's net changes were mostly trivial.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value were $1,843,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 340,300 shares.

THE FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, May 13.—Money on call steady 3 1-2 to 4 per cent.; ruling rate 3 3-4, closing bid 3 7-8; offered at 4. Time loans steady; sixty days 3 3-4 to 4 per cent., and ninety days 4 to 4 1-4. Six months 4 to 4 1-4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4 1-2 to 5 per cent., sterling exchange strong with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8370 to 4.8385 for sixty day bills and at 4.8685 for demand. Commercial bills 4.83 to 4.83 1-2. Bar silver 53 3-4. Mexican dollars 44.

PETITIONS GRANTED.

Changes Classification on Cotton Fabrics—The Commission.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 13.—The Corporation Commission makes an order granting the petition that classification on cotton fabrics be changed so as to permit shipments without being required to stencil the name of each article and the name of the shipper on the outside of the package. To do this the classification is changed to read as follows:

"Cotton fabrics in original pieces, but not finished articles ready for immediate use made of cotton, fifth class."

The case in which this order was made was that of A. M. Shrago vs. Southern Railway and others.

The Corporation Commission also grants the petition by T. A. Lyon and others, traveling men, against the Norfolk & Southern Railroad, that the railroad company be required to adopt the minimum excess baggage rates of 10 cents per 100 pounds with the minimum collection of 25 cents in each case, this to take the place of a minimum rate of 15 cents per 100 pounds now in force. The change gives uniform rates on all roads of the State.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BALLINGER-PINCHOT.

Chief of Field Service Principal Witness at Hearing Yesterday.

Washington, May 13.—Full responsibility for the "clear listing" of the Cunningham claims and the conduct of those cases before the general land office was assumed by H. H. Schwartz chief of the field service, who was a witness before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation today.

Mr. Schwartz laid the blame for the delay in reaching a conclusion in the Alaska case at the door of Glavis, who had been given all latitude in investigating them, he said. He said Mr. Ballinger had never taken any initial action in those case and that when he had "clear listed" them as commissioner of the last office he had done so on his (Schwartz's) recommendation on the basis of the report of Special Agent Love.

Attorney Vertrees, counsel for Mr. Ballinger, questioned Schwartz for several hours and his ready answers and quick wit kept the committee in an uproar all the while.

Mr. Ballinger was excused from the stand this morning with the understanding that he might be recalled for further cross-examination later by attorneys for the "prosecution".

Immediately after the committee reconvened after the luncheon recesses Mr. Schwartz took the stand and traced the history of the Cunningham claims from the time entry was made.

While he was speaking of a meeting he had with Glavis in Seattle last Summer, Mr. Schwartz said they discussed the well known clash between the land office and the forestry bureau. Mr. Vertrees asked him to explain to what he attributed the quarrel.

"There always will be friction so long as the forestry bureau and the land office are in two different departments. They should be either in the department of agriculture or in the interior department, and being in the interior department", he added with a smile, "I think they should be in that department."

One of the members of the committee was inquiring of Mr. Schwartz whether he did not think any department was needed, when Representative Graham (Democrat) broke in. "Don't you think we need another government?"

"Why, no," retorted Schwartz quickly, "We've got the best government on earth. All we need is a little better fellows to run it."

"Your complaint then, is against the felows who run the government?" asked Representative Madison.

"Or against the felows who make the flaws to run it", was the sharp reply.

Mr. Madison joined in the general laughter.

Attorney Pepper today attempted to show that the Interior Department was responsible for the number of complaints against the forest service which Chairman Nelson said had been received.

BISHOP'S REPORT.

North Carolina Diocesan Convention Ended at Winston.

Winston-Salem, May 13.—The annual report of Bishop Cheshire was read at the session of the North Carolina Diocese here yesterday and showed gratifying gains during the year. The bishop's salary was increased from $2,500 to $3,000 with $500 for traveling expenses.

An amendment was adopted to the effect where a parish fails to pay the rector's salary for two years in succession, that parish is to have no vote in the next convention.

Mr. R. H. Battle made a strong plea for the Thompson Orphanage, stating that systematic offerings were needed and he called on each Sunday School to contribute as much as $1 per week.

The ministers and delegates were tendered a reception at the home of Hon. J. C. Buxton.

The meeting closed tonight with several missionary addresses.

Holding that the increased cost of living is a problem confronting the material welfare of the Episcopal church in North Carolina, the convention in session tonight, unanimously passed a resolution directing the vestries of the various churches within its jurisdiction to immediately consider the question of increasing the salaries of their respective clergymen. The resolution created a profound impression but the close relation of spiritual and material was so potent that no debate followed its introduction.

Following the election of delegates to the general convention at Cincinnati in October, the adoption of plans to enlarge the scope of the Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte and the decision to meet in Rocky Mount next May the convention adjourned tonight.

Richmond, Va., May 13.—Governor Mann has accepted an invitation from the Virginia State Sunday School Association to march at the head of the Virginia division of adult Bible class demonstration on Friday, May 20th, during the world's Sunday school convention to be held in Washington City May 19th to 21st. It is expected that 10,000 men will be in line on the occasion.

shall not be construed as authorizing any common carrier within the terms of this act to charge or receive as great compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance:

Provided, however, that the Interstate Commerce Commission may, from its knowledge or from information or upon application, ascertain that the circumstances and conditions of the longer haul are similar to the circumstances and conditions of the shorter haul whether they result from competition by water or rail; then it may authorize a common carrier to charge less for the longer than for the shorter distances for the transportation of passengers or property; but in no event shall the authority be granted unless the commission is satisfied that all the rates involved are just and reasonable and not unjustly discriminatory, nor unduly preferential or prejudicial and provided further,

"That no rates nor charges lawfully existing at the time of the passage of this amendatory act shall be required to be changed by reason of the provisions of this section prior to the expiration of six months after the passage of this act, nor in any case where application shall have been filed before the commission, in accordance with the provisions of this section, until a determination of such application by the Commission."

Of the 56 votes cast in favor of the amendment 22 were given by Republican Senators, who have opposed the insertion of any long and short haul provision in the railroad bill; 13 by Democrats and the remainder by Republicans, chiefly insurgents. The negative vote was equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. Among the Senators who voted in favor of the provision were Messrs. Bacon, Clark, Arkansas; Clay, Martin, Owen, Percy, Simmons and Smith, of South Carolina.

Among those voting in the negative were Bailey, McEnery and Overman.

Picturing the political effect of a humiliating defeat through the adoption of an exclusively Democratic amendment the "regular" Republicans encountered little difficulty in bringing a large majority of the Senate to their way of thinking. A compromise which finally was adopted, was put in the hands of Senator Smoot and in turn presented to Senator Dixon who offered it as a modification of his own amendment, just prior to the hour of 4 o'clock.

Through the clumsy handling of scissors and paste brush the composite compromise was sent to the clerk's desk in a far more different form than intended by its author. As the clerk began to read Senator Aldrich hurried to the desk of Senator Dixon and a whispered conversation ensued. Mr. Dixon clamored for recognition.

"I move that the Senate recess," he shouted, "until 4:30 o'clock."

He appeared greatly excited. The demand for a recess was met with cries of "No, no!" but on a vote a large majority sustained the demand.

There followed a scene of great confusion, such as rarely takes place in the Senate. Some declare it to have been unprecedented in recent years. Obviously few people realized what the move meant. On every side there were cries that the unanimous consent agreement had been violated.

DESTROYER LAUNCHED.

Torpedo Boat Successfully Placed on the Deep.

Quincy, Mass, May 12.—That grim sea fighter, Commodore Andrew Sterrett, would have swept the Mediterranean clean of Barbary pirates if he had had under his feet so speed, yet so frail, a craft as the torpedo boat destroyer which was given his name as she plunged down the launching ways today.

But Commodore Sterrett died 107 years ago in the days of the wooden frigate and the muzzle loaders, and the Navy Department had difficulty in finding a direct descendant to smash the wine bottle and christen the boat with his name. The honor was given to Miss Dorothy Rosalie Gittings, of Baltimore.

When the Sterrett receives her equipment and takes on board a dozen or so of those long brass tubes it is a question of naval science whether she could deal a fatal blow to so formidable a fighter as the battleship Florida, also making her maiden plunge today.

The Sterrett is expected to make 29 1-2 knots an hour from the 600 revolutions each minute of her two turbine-driven screws. The Sterrett and her sisters are notable pioneers of new and enlarged types of ocean going destroyers planned to keep the sea with the battle fleet under all conditions.

The launching proved successful in every way.

CAPTURED AFTER CHASE

Negro Who Wounded Six Soldiers at Fort Fremont.

Beaufort, S. C., May 13.—Following a thrilling chase of two days and nights in the almost impenetrable swamps of St. Louis, Paris and other islands of the coast, Deputy Sheriff Matthew O'Donnell and a companion tonight captured Isiah Potter, alias Little Potter, one of the negroes responsible for the shooting and serious injuring of six soldiers of the 127 Company, Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Fremont Tuesday night. Will Potter the other negro who engaged in the fusillades on the soldiers doubtless will be captured tomorrow morning and brothers will be given an early hearing in the hope that the excited white people will not take the law into their own hands. Isaiah Potter's statement to the arresting officer indicates that he and his brother based their attack upon the soldiers upon the "unwritten law," alleging that a private at Fort Fremont had persistently refused to cease intimacy with Will Potter's wife while the soldiers had forced other indignities upon them.

COMMITTEE CAN'T AGREE.

No Date for Consideration of Bill Aimed at Futures.

Washington, May 13.—The rules committee of the house today tried ineffectually to agree on a date for consideration of the Scott bill to prohibit transactions in futures on cotton exchanges. It was decided to defer action on a rule providing for this consideration for about two weeks.

IN NICARAGUA

The Situation as it Now Stands in Islands.

New Orleans, May 13.—The threatened battle between the Estrada and Madriz forces in Nicaragua may not occur for several days yet, according to advices received here. It is reported that the largest division of the Madriz forces is now in camp at a point about eight miles south of Bluefields.

A portion of the invading army has been left at Rama to flank the opposing army of the insurgents. It is believed that the madriz forces are awaiting the arrival of the steamship Venus, said to be fully armed, before beginning a land attack on Bluefields. The Venus sailed from New Orleans on April 30, flying the British flag and following a strong legal fight against its departure by the local representatives of the Estrada faction.

That the Venus has put into a port of Central or South America to change its register is not denied by the Madriz representatives at New Orleans. In view of the fact that twelve days have elapsed since its departure from this port, the belief is strong that it sailed into one of the nearest South American ports. News of its first destination has not bee ascertained, however.

According to a proclamation of Estrada, published in the Bluefields American of recent issue, a copy of which was received here today, each volunteer in the insurgent army will receive 1.. acres of land for his services the same to revert to the government of the east coast if it i snot in cultivation within six years.

The American National Bank

In a Family There Are Two Children
RUTH IS 6 AND EDWIN 8 YEARS OLD.

The mother assumed responsibility for the girl's behavior, and the father the boy's.

A schedule of fines is kept up; the children know nothing of it. For instance, if Ruth is disobedient at the table, mother is fined a dime. If Edwin "talks back", father pays a fine of a quarter.

Of course, as the children grow older the money realized from fines grows less. This deficit is made up by either father or mother depositing in the fine box each week, according to whose care has excelled in behavior.

The money goes into a savings fund, placed in a bank, and will be used to educate Ruth and Edwin.

This is building character in a practical way. It rears children right and saves money at the same time. Your children have to be educated. Why not adopt a saving plan and have the money when the time comes?

We pay 4 per cent. interest and compound interest four times a year. Open an account here.

THOS. E. COOPER, Cashier.
